ARIANNA HUFFINGTON FEATURED AT HARTFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY'S 2012 ONE BIG SUMMER NIGHT

HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT (June 4, 2012) — Hartford Public Library and Connecticut Light & Power present Arianna Huffington, president and editor-in-chief of the AOL Huffington Post Media Group, a nationally syndicated columnist and author of thirteen books, at the Library's annual fundraiser, One Big Summer Night, on Tuesday, June 12, 2012 at the Connecticut Convention Center in Downtown Hartford.

One Big Summer Night, which has grown in popularity since it began in 2002, features noted authors, an elegant reception, exciting live and silent auctions, and a summer supper. Lieutenant Governor Nancy Wyman is this year's Honorary Chairperson with Kara Sundlun and Dennis House from WFSB Channel 3 as Masters of Ceremonies.

"Public libraries, one of the nation's truly democratic institutions, are essential to developing civically engaged communities," said Ms. Huffington. "I look forward to coming to Hartford where the Library is a leader in civic engagement."

Proceeds from the event allow the Library to invest in technology and to sponsor wide ranging literacy, job and career services, digital access and educational programs to serve the thousands of men, women and children who visit, and depend on, the Library every day.

Tickets are available at $145 and can still be purchased online <http://obsn.eventbrite.com> or by calling 860-695-6342.

The gala is funded in part by Connecticut Light & Power, First Niagara, The Hartford, Travelers, University of Connecticut, Webster Bank, Cigna, Gengras, Bank of America, Capital Restoration, Inc., Fiduciary Investment Advisors, ING, Landmark Partners, Trinity College/Southside Institutions Neighborhood Alliance, and Wells Fargo.

About the speaker

Arianna Huffington is the president and editor-in-chief of the AOL Huffington Post Media Group, a nationally syndicated columnist and author of thirteen books, including her most recent publication, Third World America: How Our Politicians Are Abandoning the Middle Class and Betraying the American Dream, and the international bestseller The Woman behind the Legend, a biography of Maria Callas, published in 1981.

In May 2005, she launched The Huffington Post, a news and blog site that quickly became one of the most widely-read, linked to, and frequently-cited media brands on the Internet. In 2006 and 2011, she was named to the TIME 100, TIME magazine's list of the world's 100 most influential people as well as Fast Company's list of the 100 Most Creative People in Business; Financial Times's 50 People Who Shaped the Decade; Newsweek's Top Ten Thought-Leaders of the Decade; Forbes's lists of Most Influential Women in the Media and The World's 100 Most Powerful Women and Vanity Fair's 2011 Top 50 New Establishment list.

Originally from Greece, she moved to England when she was 16 and graduated from Cambridge University with an M.A. in economics. At 21, she became president of the famed debating society, the Cambridge Union.

Huffington has made guest appearances on numerous television shows, including Charlie Rose, Oprah, Nightline, Real Time with Bill Maher, Hardball, Good Morning America, the Today show, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, The Daily Show with Jon Stewart and The O'Reilly Factor.

She serves on several boards that promote community solutions to social problems, including A Place Called Home, which works with at-risk children in South Central Los Angeles. She also serves on the board of EL PAÍS and the board of the Committee to Protect Journalists.
