Jeff Wieselberg was born & raised in New Jersey, where he began taking piano lessons at the age of 7 and played in bands while in high school and college at Hofstra. He was a founding member of 2 popular and fondly-remembered bands, CLOCKWORK and THE RIVERSIDE DRIVERS, but for 30 years he has been performing mostly solo. He performs a wide variety of popular songs (pop, jazz, blues, rock, and Broadway) from throughout the 20th century, and a bit of the new millennium, too.
