

Mentor –YOUmedia (part-time): Hartford Public Library seeks creative and flexible individual for Mentor in our new digital learning center for teens. Responsibilities: This position will assist with the implementation and use of various technologies and is also responsible for trouble-shooting technological difficulties and the set-up for YOUmedia events. Minimum requirements: Bachelor's degree in Instructional Technology, Web or Graphic Design, Music Production, or a related discipline is preferred. Min. 1 year of exp. Teaching digital media, or 1 year of professional career experience in a related technological field is required. Experience working with teens is required, including a demonstrated sensitivity and commitment to the needs of teens.

Experience with new technologies and social media required. Applicant must be technologically fluent with Macs, PCs and digital media creation software. Full requirements, job description and application are available online at <http://hplct.org/about/job-openings> or Administrative Office, Hartford Public Library, 500 Main Street, Hartford, CT 06103. A completed signed application and a digital portfolio must be received in order to be considered for this position. Position open until filled.

Hartford Public Library requires a Criminal Background Check and Pre-employment Drug Testing on applicants who are selected as a finalist for the position. Applicants will be provided a copy of any positive drug test results. A criminal record does not necessarily eliminate you from employment with Hartford Public Library. Each conviction will be reviewed with respect to the offense, circumstances, seriousness and the position for which you apply. E.O.E.