NONPROFIT WORKSHOP SERIES - SPRING 2019

GRANT WRITING A TO Z: MAXIMIZE YOUR CHANCES WITH FOUNDATIONS

Presenter: Judith Margolin, Needagrant.org

Wednesday, May 1, 2019: 9:00 am - 4:30 pm. Room 140

Busy nonprofit staff rarely have the luxury of spending enough time developing a critical skill: composing and submitting targeted proposals to each prospect on your list. This full-day workshop combines a comprehensive overview of the proposal writing process with practical advice to increase your chances of success at securing the funds you need from foundations and corporations. This workshop is offered as a partnership between Hartford Foundation for Public Giving and Hartford Public Library

Participants must be employed or working as a contractor for a nonprofit organization (one per organization). Lunch will be provided. Workshop is free and attendance is capped at 25.

To ensure a spot and as an indication of the organization’s commitment to your full-day workshop attendance we ask that you please complete the following and have it signed by your executive director or board president.
