David Desiderato, Field Organizer at the Universal Healthcare Foundation of Connecticut, shared information at Hartford Public Library about the Affordable Care Act particularly as it relates to immigrants. He provided handouts, which are available at the National Immigrant Law Center site at:

<http://www.nilc.org/>

First is the “Quick Guide to Immigrant Eligibility for the ACA and Key Federal Means-tested Programs.” It’s one-page grid that shows various public programs (ACA, Medicaid, CHIP, SSI, etc.) and the immigrant categories (Lawful Permanent Residents 18 and over; Lawful Permanent Residents under 18; etc.) that are eligible for the programs. It’s at:

<http://www.nilc.org/document.html?id=844>

This looks like a nice, concise guide.

There is the “Immigrants and the Affordable Care Act (ACA)” at:

<http://www.nilc.org/immigrantshcr.html>

and in Spanish at:

<http://www.nilc.org/immigrantshcrsp.html>

This focuses on the ACA and it details eligibility for: naturalized citizens, lawfully present immigrants, and undocumented immigrants. It also lists the verification requirements.

There is the “Health Care for DACA Grantees,” which is a 2-page pdf at:

<http://www.nilc.org/document.html?id=837>

(DACA stands for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals.)

Next there is the “Civil Rights Protections Reinforced Under the Affordable Care Act,” which is a 2 page pdf at:

Finally, there is the document titled: “Do Aspiring Citizens Have Access to Affordable Health Care & Benefits Under S. 744?” at:
