Community Dialogues

What is a Community Dialogue and how does it work?

- It's a series of small group discussions in April and May focusing on Adult Learning as a Pathway to Change
- Dialogues are guided by trained facilitators from the community
- This is not just talk. The dialogues lead to an action agenda.

Why should you participate?

- To partner with neighbors, friends, and community leaders
- To take an active role in identifying needs and actions
- To strengthen your community
- To create better opportunities for Hartford residents and new arrivals.

By participating you will:

- Find out where to turn for your learning needs
- Advocate for your rights and develop leadership skills
- Meet your neighbors and make new friends.
- Participants who complete the four week dialogue will receive a certificate.
