4. Chief Executive Officer’s Report

Mrs. Bridget Quinn-Carey presented some highlights.

- Held two Leadership trainings for managers and supervisors in an effort to strengthen the skills needed for all managers.
- All Staff meeting on October 5, 2018. Board is welcomed to attend.
- Staff Day scheduled for November 2, 2018 focusing on team building. Board is welcomed to join staff for lunch at the boathouse.
- HPL submitted a nomination with Hartford Business Journal for the insurance companies who gave to the library.
- Park Street construction moving along. Launch of construction project is scheduled for October 15 at 5:30PM. The Banner will be unveiled at the launch.
- Boundless Project at Rawson will move forward when the staff person is in place. HPL has someone in mind and will be making an offer soon.
- Strategic Plan is in its second year. Need to think about the next Strategic Plan. Continuing to evaluate hours of service, programming, and usage.
- Thank you notes are available to go out to donors.
- A live Reading on the Terrace is scheduled for October 24 at 1PM.
- RFID system is a way to provide security to Library materials seamlessly. Allows for self-service stations.

5. President’s Report

Mr. Greg Davis gave his report:

- Mr. Davis welcomed Diana Smith to her first board meeting
- The New Staff Breakfast was very well attended by Board
- Board efforts – Amy Barron leading Governance; David Barrett for being very responsive and attending almost all events, and Phyllis Shikora for volunteering with The American Place providing consultation and helps close cases so the staff can take on new cases
- Mr. Davis along with CEO Bridget Quinn-Carey met with Councilwoman Claudine Fox
- HPL had its 125th anniversary celebration and was well attended by Board

6. Discussion Topic

Amy Barron introduced Janna Pederson who has been working with the Library for about a year and was invited to this meeting to talk about the work she will be doing with the Board on revising and updating the bylaws.

Janna asked the Board to reflect on what is believed to be the value of the Corporators and to come back to the group with ideas and recommendations.
7. New Business

Maker Space and Public Equipment Use Policy

Mrs. Bridget Quinn-Carey presented the Maker Space and Public Equipment Use policy which lays out what the Library is offering and what is expected of Library users. Gives staff the ability to make judgement calls on the appropriate use of Library equipment.

Board Action: A motion was made to approve the Maker Space and Public Equipment Use Policy. The motion was moved by David Barrett and seconded by Amy Barron. The motion was unanimously approved.

8. Other Business

FY18 Year End Financials

HPL is still finalizing audit with BlumShapiro. Overall, HPL did not spend quite as much as earned. Most of the gap comes from a number of vacant positions not filled. Final numbers will be in the Annual Report.

9. Announcements

Mr. Davis reported that this will be Marc DiBella’s last board meeting as his second term has ended. He has been committed to remain as an HPL friend.

Eddie Keith reported he had his second daughter in September and wanted to thank the Board and staff for the beautiful gift sent.

10. Adjourn

Board Action: With no other business, a motion was made to adjourn the meeting at 9:35 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Bridget Quinn-Carey
CEO and Acting Secretary
