HARTFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY'S PARK STREET LIBRARY @ THE LYRIC NOW OPEN SUNDAYS

(Hartford, CT)—Hartford Public Library (HPL) is happy to announce that Sunday hours are back. Park Street Library @ the Lyric, 603 Park Street, Hartford, will now be open Sundays through May 2025 from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

"HPL is dedicated to providing services and resources to the Hartford community. Additional open hours on Sunday at the Park Street Library @ the Lyric offer a beautiful space where all are welcome to study, check out books, or even hang out," says Lizandra Matias, Branch & Community Engagement Manager at Park Street Library @ the Lyric.

The two-story, 13,000-square-foot Library is in the Frog Hollow neighborhood of Hartford. It includes a 3,000-square-foot reading room, a 1,200-square-foot children's room, and the largest Spanish collection in the HPL system. On the Library's second floor, visitors can access a learning lab, a conference room, and a spacious 2,000-square-foot community room. This multipurpose area can accommodate over 150 people and is suitable for various gatherings such as meetings, lectures, events, and performances.

About Hartford Public Library

Founded as the Library Company in 1774, and over its 250 years, Hartford Public Library has remained at the forefront of redefining the urban library experience in the 21st century. With seven locations throughout the city, the library provides education, intellectual enrichment, and cultural development for thousands of children, youth, and adults annually. Hartford Public Library has also gained local and national recognition for its wide range of new initiatives and partnerships designed to meet the needs of a diverse and dynamic city and region, including immigration services, employment assistance, and youth leadership training.
