9.21
2013

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with 3 great Latin Jazz performances at Hartford Public Library during Envisionfest Hartford !

Saturday
September 21, 2013

11:00 a.m. Nelson Bello

Bello is a Hartford resident, started playing Latin percussion at the age of 8. Nelson graduated from the Hartford Conservatory of Music. He has worked with great notables like Domingo Quinones, Frankie Vazquez, Ray Gonzalez, Ray De La Paz and others.

1:00 p.m. Jason Yeager

New York-based pianist/composer Jason Yeager's music is deeply expressive and multi-faceted. A recording artist on Greg Osby's Inner Circle Music label, Yeager released his debut CD, "Ruminations," in March 2011. Following a semester studying abroad in Argentina in 2008, he became fascinated with that country's musical traditions and culture. Along with his trio, he will present original compositions and folk songs inspired by the music of Argentina and Brazil.

3:00 p.m. Ray Gonzalez

A native of Gurabo, Puerto Rico, González attended the Conservatory of Music in Puerto Rico and the University of Puerto Rico. He and his orchestra have toured throughout the United States and Puerto Rico, and he has worked for bandleaders ranging from Tito Puente to Charlie Palmieri.
