Despite the economic downturn the demand for jobs in Connecticut such as nurses, manufacturing machinists, mechanics, and public safety officers is strong and is expected to remain so. These jobs potentially provide real employment opportunities today for thousands of Connecticut residents.

Join us to learn more about these opportunities and how to access the many existing training programs that will help you qualify for them. Job seekers and organizations offering training programs, as well as the general public are welcome to participate.

Coffee at 9:30 a.m., Light lunch at 12:30 p.m.

This program is part of the Community Information Hub, a partnership of
