

EARLY LITERACY LIBRARIAN (full-time): Hartford Public Library seeks an Early Literacy Librarian in support of early literacy and childhood literacy, within the Library's broader program of services. This position requires substantial application of professional knowledge and experience. Responsibilities: responsible for the system wide support of the Library's strategic initiatives of providing early literacy experiences to infants through preschoolers, connecting with parents and caregivers, providing outreach to child care providers, and developing school-age readers and life-long learners. Minimum requirements: Masters Degree in library science, supervisory experience preferred. Applicant must have extensive knowledge of early literacy standards. Full requirements, job description and application are available online at <http://hplct.org/about/job-openings> or Administrative Office, Hartford Public Library, 500 Main Street, Hartford, CT 06103. Applications accepted until July 10, 2013.