

How Do Our Surroundings Shape Us?

Date: Saturday, December 14, 1:00 PM

Location: Real Art Ways, 56 Arbor Street

Real Art Ways and Hartford Public Library invite you to engage in a Community Conversation about how the physical characteristics of our neighborhoods affect our community experiences. Hartford Courant Editor and Place Columnist Tom Condon will moderate a discussion with artist Lourdes Correa-Carlo, who will discuss her exhibition Systemic Relation, depicting architectural features found in Hartford neighborhoods.

Community respondents Toni Gold, Carlos Hernandez Chavez, and Jamil Ragland will help us look further into the power of urban planning to unite, define, or fracture our neighborhoods.

Light lunch will be available at 12:30.

Seating is limited: please RSVP to info@realartways.org.

For more information call RAW at 860-232-1006 or HPL at 860-695-6319.
